

What is advocacy?

Advocacy is about:

- Safeguarding people who are in situations where they may be vulnerable
- Speaking up for, or standing alongside people who may not to be heard - supporting them to express their views and make their own decisions and contributions
- Enabling people to make informed choices about, and remain in control of, their own social and health care

This is a professional and independent advocacy service, providing issue-based individual and collective advocacy support.

Circles Network is a Registered Charity in England and Wales (No. 1043601) and in Scotland (No. SC038068), and a Registered Company Limited by Guarantee in England and Wales (No. 2972700). Registered Office: The Penthouse, Coventry Road, Cawston, Rugby, Warwickshire, CV23 9JP.

A woman with curly blonde hair, wearing a purple and black patterned top and a lanyard, is seated at a white table. She is looking at a brochure titled "My Views My Treatment" which features a photograph of a woman. The background shows a window with white vertical blinds and a light blue wall. The scene is overlaid with several semi-transparent blue circles of different sizes.

Circles Advocacy

Do you need help to speak up?

Would it help you to have an independent person explain things to you or to speak up for you?

Circles Advocacy helps people to:

- Have a say about the services they receive
- Understand their rights
- Get the right information to help them make choices
- Raise issues they are worried about
- Safeguarding people who are in situations where they are vulnerable

Circles Advocacy in South Ayrshire can support people aged 16 and over, who are affected by:

- Mental health issues
- Learning disabilities
- Chronic illness
- Physical disabilities
- Brain injuries
- Dementia
- Autistic spectrum disorders
- Adults at risk of harm

How we work with you

We will meet you to talk about how we can help. We will listen to the concerns you have and tell you if we can help. We will agree a plan of how we will help you. We can support you with one or more problems.

A Confidential Service

We will keep what you say to us confidential. Your advocate will talk to you about our confidentiality policy.

We support isolated and excluded adults by:

- Promoting informed choice and opportunities.
- Challenging barriers to progress in modern Mental Health Care.
- Advocating for people without judgment and according to their expressed need.
- Acting in a safeguarding capacity for people's rights where issues of incapacity or communication difficulties arise.

We can provide you with support in communication with all relevant agencies and at:

- Tribunals
- Meetings
- Reviews
- CPAs
