

Circles Network changes lives through opportunities for achievement, social inclusion and by promoting a spirit of community, whilst having fun through shared activities.

Person centred, collective advocacy, providing independent, professional, issue based resolutions for thousands of people.

Our community support projects offer 1:1 and group support to people of any age at risk of isolation due to disability or disadvantage.

The Equine team run a range of projects for children, young people and adults who want to work alongside horses and ponies.

The Circles Academy is designed to disseminate and deliver the best bespoke learning and is open to participants of all ages.
